BIOGRAPHY

Stew Henderson was born in Hartford, Connecticut in 1954. He received a B.F.A. from the Hartford Art School at the University of Hartford and an A.A. from Dean Junior College in Franklin, Massachusetts. Upon graduating from college he apprenticed to sculptor Wolfgang Behl in Greenfield MA. working on a commission for the town of Bloomfield CT. Henderson then moved to New Orleans, LA. to serve as apprentice to kinetic sculptor Lin Emery. Stew and his young bride Jody moved to Maine in 1981, settling first in Belfast and currently in Northport. They have a son, Chris and a daughter Lucy. In 1986 he received a grant from the Pollock-Krasner Foundation. Mr. Henderson taught sculpture at Unity College in Unity ME. for 3 years and has given workshops on installations in nature at Waterfall Arts in Montville, ME. From 1983-93 he wrote art reviews for two publications in mid coast Maine. His work has appeared in several publications over the years including being listed as one of Maine's most collectible artists in Maine Home and Design Magazine. Stew Henderson has had twenty solo shows of his work in addition to a mid career survey of his work at the Hartford Art School in 2000. His work has also been included in over 60 group exhibitions. Stew is currently the Senior Preparator at the Colby College Museum of Art in Waterville, ME.
