This body of landscape watercolors completes a year since moving to Maine full-time. I was in recovery from a bicycle accident through most of 2019-2020, and so, much of the year had limited mobility until recent months. What started as therapy, turned into a full fledge, and, satisfying return to painting landscape. Weskeag Tidal Marsh and the nearby rocky coast reconnected me to my landscape painting experience in the 70's and has moved me forward as a painter. - David Dewey
