LITTLETOES 2023 digital print on aluminum dibond 8 x 6 inches ed 1/5

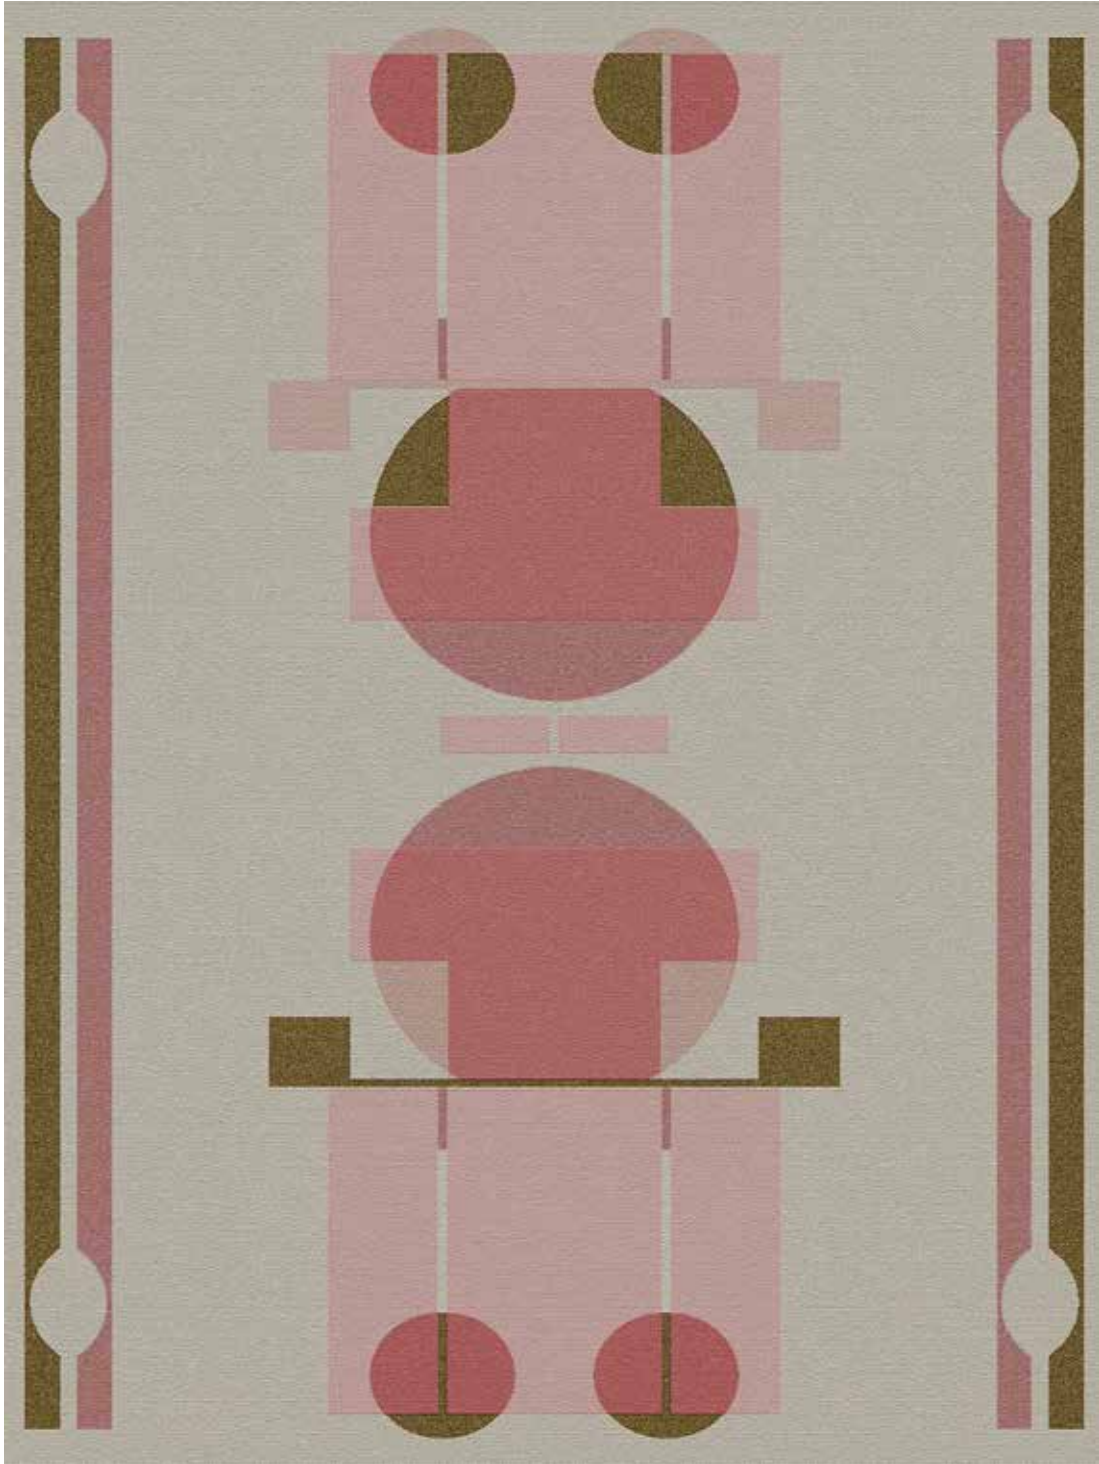

My art is primarily based on Geometric abstraction.

During the pandemic years I found it hard to go to the studio and work on larger paintings. I retreated to a small office in my home and created digitally. I looked at pieces from years ago encompassing a digital history that started in the early 1980s. I reconfigured, recolored, reshaped and started doing these small digital studies. Thinking they could become large someday and maybe they will, but at present I feel they have a life of their own. They are exhibited here as small editions of 5 or as unique pieces.
